INDIANA UTILITY
REGULATORY COMMISSION

You are hereby notified that on this date the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission has caused the following entry to be made:

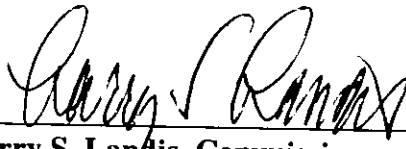

On February 18, 2004, Petitioner and the Office of Utility Consumer Counselor ("OUCC") filed with the Commission their "Joint Agreement and Order," which appears in the following words and figures, to-wit:

[H.I.]

In anticipation of the upcoming hearing on March 3, 2004, the presiding officers now direct the parties to bring witnesses prepared to respond to the following questions about the parties' Joint Agreement:

1. What course of action have the parties agreed Petitioner should take with regard to cleaning its water intakes? What will it cost? Will this allow the utility to operate efficiently and meet its peak demand?
2. Please provide an updated Net Operating Income Statement.
3. Please provide the agreed-upon depreciation rates established by the settlement agreement.
4. Please provide a proposed tariff reflecting the settlement agreement.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
